INSIDE WRITING AND PUBLISHING

The Morton Grove Public Library will celebrate National Library Week (April 14-20) with literary programs spanning the whole month of April.

The Library is a participant in a consortium of North Suburban Libraries offering free seminars on writing and publishing, featuring various authors from the Chicago and suburban area.

Appearing at the Morton Grove Library on Thursday, April 11, will be Joseph DeBartolo, author of "In Further Pursuit of Trivial Pursuit". He will speak on the struggle to get published and tell how he and his family formed their own publishing company.

On Thursday, April 18, Charlotte Herman, noted children's author, will speak on writing books for children. Mrs. Herman lives in Lincolnwood and her award-winning books have been published in several languages.

On Saturday, April 27 at 2:30, Phyllis Feuerstein, author of "The Not-So-Empty Nest" will speak on writing domestic humor and using family experiences as a resource.

The programs will include audience discussion, book displays and refreshments. Everyone is invited to meet these talented writers and to share their writing and publishing experiences.

Please note the "Inside Writing and Publishing" poster and brochure in the Library which will give information on seminars by other authors at various libraries.

The Library will be closed on Easter Sunday, April 7 and Sunday, May 26 and Monday, May 27, Memorial Day weekend.

JOAN STEWART TO RETIRE

It is with sincere regret that the Morton Grove Library Board of Trustees announces the resignation of Joan Stewart, the Executive Librarian, as of April 30, 1985.

Mrs. Stewart is retiring after 14 progressive years at the Morton Grove Library. During her administration, the Library expanded its collections, began its complete computerization, and added a meeting room, typing rooms, offices and new circulation desk area to the building.

The community has certainly benefited from her ambitions and accomplishments for the Library. The Library Board and Staff wish her well in the months and years ahead.

MEET THE CANDIDATES

A special forum on the upcoming Village elections on April 2 will be presented at the Library on Sunday, March 24 at 1:30 P.M.

Candidates for the Village Board, the Library Board, and the Park Board will be introduced and the audience may question them in a controlled format.

The "Meet Your Candidates" forum is co-sponsored by the League of Women Voters and the Morton Grove Chamber of Commerce. All voters are welcome to attend and learn more about the candidates before voting on April 2. The forum will also be televised on Continental Cablevision local Channel 3 at a later date.

GUITAR CONCERT

The melodious sounds of Norman Ruiz on the classical guitar will be heard in the Baxter Room on Sunday, March 17 at 2:30.

Mr. Ruiz performed at the Library a year ago and his artistry on the guitar is astounding. He has performed at Evanston's Weinstein Center and is chairman of the Guitar Dept. at the Old Town School of Music.

THE BIRTH OF CHICAGO

The exciting story of Chicago's frontier birth and the boom town years that followed will be told in a unique slideshow, "The Birth of Chicago" on Thurs. March 14 at 7:30.

Richard Thome, television teacher for the Chicago Board of Education, will present this dramatic view of the explorers, the settlers and the entrepreneurs who promoted Chicago's dazzling growth.

INVESTMENT SEMINARS

Three investment seminars will be offered at the Library for those interested in financial planning, taxes, and investments.

"Tax-Free Investments and IRA Alternatives" will be discussed in a lecture on Wed. March 6 at 7:30 by Steve Esposito, investment broker from Paine Webber. Municipal bonds, annuities, and real estate limited partnerships will be included.

Gene Mackevich, noted financial expert and vice-president of E.F.Hutton will speak on "Reducing Taxes with Creative Financial Planning" on Wed. April 3 at 7:30.

The seminar will include reducing tax liability with safety, increasing after-tax income, and illustrating how those who carry Social Security benefits can avoid paying a tax.

Registration for this lecture is required and will be taken at the Reader's Service Desk from March 18 to March 29.

"Are You Paying Too Much in Taxes?" will be discussed in a lecture on Thurs. May 16 at 7:30.

The speaker will be Les Goldstein from the firm of Dean Witter. The effect of investments on tax payments and changes in the tax structure will be discussed.

SPRING IS COMING!

Spring is coming and so is horticulturist Carl Jacobson to talk about spring plants and gardening on Wed. March 27 at 7:30.

Mr. Jacobson is a flower expert from the Lincoln Park Conservatory and has delighted Library audiences many times with his "flower talk".

BOOK REVIEW

The dark mysteries of Egypt and its turbulent history in this century will be explored in the book review of "Sakkara" by Noel Barber, presented by Barbara Todd on Sun. April 21 at 2:30 and Fri.,April 26 at 2:30.

This compelling and romantic novel follows the lives of a young Englishman and the daughter of an Egyptian Court Advisor as they are swept into a dangerous current of espionage, royal intrigue and murder.

Please make a note of the Friday date and time and join us for "Sakkara."

EXPLORE THE QUETICO

The rugged beauty and natural wonders of the Quetico Provincial Park in Canada and the Boundary Waters Canoe Area will be presented in a slide-lecture, "Explore the Quetico" on Wed. April 17 at 7:30.

Tom Holleran, explorer and outdoors expert, will share his experiences in the great canoeing wilderness of northern Minnesota and Ontario, Canada. Join us for a great trip.

ALCOHOLISM AND DRUGS

Are you concerned about a loved one's drinking or drug addiction? Learn how you can obtain help at a lecture on "Alcoholism and Chemical Dependency" on Mon. March 18 at 7:30.

Jerry Zabin, a clinical social worker with the Skokie Valley Hospital Care unit, will discuss chemical addiction as a progressive disease and the role of the Care Unit in providing treatment and support.

WALK AWAY WITH HEALTHY FEET

Do your feet hurt? Do you have problems with bunions, corns, ingrown toenails? Then come and hear Dr. Erwin Friedman on "Walk Away With Healthy Feet" on Wed. April 10 at 7:30.

Dr. Friedman is a podiatrist at the North Suburban Podiatry Center in Skokie and he will discuss the causes of foot problems and the latest surgical treatments for them. Don't miss it!

HYPNOTISM AND WEIGHT CONTROL

When all else fails, hypnotism can help the frustrated dieter. This is the premise explored in the lecture "Hypnotism and Weight Control", presented by Ferne Szulc on Mon. April 15 at 7:30.

Ms. Szulc is a hypnotist with a private practice in Lincolnwood. She will explain the value of self-hypnosis and will illustrate some hypnotic techniques.

ELDERHOSTEL

No one is ever too old to go back to school or to reach out to new experiences! This basic truth inspired the ELDERHOSTEL program which will be explained in a lecture on Thurs. April 25 at 7:30 by Dr. Leona Mirza of North Park College.

ELDERHOSTEL is a network of colleges and universities which offer special low-cost, short-term residential academic programs for adults over 60. Come and learn about this stimulating educational movement and its benefits for you!

UNIQUE ANTIQUES

The lure of antiques and their peculiar values will be discussed by Lynn Seplowin, owner of UNIQUE ANTIQUES in Morton Grove, on Wed. March 20 at 7:30.

The audience may bring small articles for evaluation and Mrs. Seplowin will bring samples of the "newest" antiques on today's market.

SOCIAL SECURITY AND MEDICARE

The latest changes in Social Security and Medicare benefits will be discussed in a lecture on Wed. May 8 at 7:30.

The speaker will be Arzetta Hults, Field Representative for the Glenview and Evanston Social Security offices. Retired people, particularly, are urged to attend this important program.

APPLE COMPUTER

Don't forget to sign up for our new Apple Computer! We have educational software which will enable you to learn math, typing, word processing and the SAT Review. Reservations are taken at the Reader's Service Desk two days in advance.

ADULT FILM SERIES

The best in film entertainment will be shown free at the Library this Spring!

Recent award winning films like "The Right Stuff", "Greystoke", and "Places in the Heart" will be featured as well as good oldies, "Tom Jones", "Lili", and "That's Entertainment!"

Our religious series, "The Long Search" will continue with films on Orthodox Christianity, Protestantism, Taoism and religions in Indonesia.

Spring travelogues will take you to the Southern United States in March and to Denmark in April. In May, world traveller Nathan Hoffman will present his personal trip to Italy.

Please consult the Calendar on Page 2 for dates and times.

ART EXHIBITS

A display of paintings by Catherine Koenig will grace the Baxter Room during the month of April. Mrs. Koenig studied oil painting after retiring from a business career and her work has been exhibited in Deerfield, Glenview, and Park Ridge.

Edward Skotch, Morton Grove artist, will exhibit his paintings in May. Mr. Skotch is self-taught and he specializes in landscapes and seascapes. His work has been displayed in Wilmette and Chicago.

NEW VIDEOS

Some new videos have been recently added to our collection: ROMANCING THE STONE, THE NATURAL, REAR WINDOW, CHITTY CHITTY BANG BANG and the Video SAT Review.

Also available are new classical and popular records, some in the new compact disc format.
